

Worship Ministries

Networking, Equipping

What We Do

Worship Ministries desires that every worshipping community experiences Spirit-filled worship and preaching — being called each week to worship that is biblical, Reformed, creative, and inspired; helps to form faith in all generations; and equips us to be sent into God's world to worship in spirit and in truth.

Networking

- Facebook

CRC Worship Ministries

Join 500 other CRC worship leaders in this supportive group where you can share ideas and ask questions.

- Monthly Enews

crcna.org/Worship

Sign up to learn about in-person and online opportunities to connect and learn together.

We are blessed by three kinds of financial support: CRC ministry shares, designated church offerings, and generous gifts from people like you. Thank You!

Equipping

- Endorsed Coaches

crcna.org/Worship/Endorsed-Coaches

In addition to staff, these individuals are available to work one-on-one or with groups addressing practical issues related to planning and leading, technology, intergenerational or multicultural worship, the theology of worship, and more.

- YouTube

tinyurl.com/CRC-Worship

This is where you will find a growing number of worship related webinars as well as a video sermon library with sermons that are available for use in CRC congregations.

- Reformed Worship

ReformedWorship.org

Discover content that inspires and rich resources adaptable for your context. A quarterly journal available in print or digital format.

- The Network

network.crcna.org/Worship

Resources to help with planning worship and reflecting more deeply on it.

A Prayer at the Opening of Worship on Trinity Sunday

Optional Video: #ThisIsCRCWorship (available at https://youtu.be/uNyxN5ntc_k)

Prayer:

Triune God,

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, on this Trinity Sunday we are reminded of the unity and diversity found in the Trinity and how as the family of God through the working of the Trinity in and through us we too give expression to both our unity and diversity.

You call us to be the family of God. As brothers and sisters in Christ we share one faith. We worship one God and are filled with one Spirit. We are baptized with one baptism. We eat of one bread and drink of one cup. We confess one name, are obedient to one Lord, and share one hope. All this is to the praise of you — our one God — for you are over all, through all, and in all.

We marvel at the beautiful diversity that reflects John's vision in Revelation of every tribe, tongue, and nation gathered around the throne. When we worship, we get a glimpse of that space where heaven and earth meet for a moment — and we, your children, are united in Christ, together joining our voices with all the heavenly realm to worship.

Thank you for graciously gathering us and inviting us to participate in spirit and in truth. As we worship today, draw us together once again and unite our voices in praise of you, our one true King.

We pray all these things to God the Creator, through Jesus Christ the author and perfecter of our faith, in the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Optional Sung Prayer: Spirit of the Living God^{LUYH 749}